DAVID W. HYNES

757-406-9044 ▪ dave@hrheli.com ▪ Suffolk, VA

PILOT QUALIFICATIONS

ATP-Multi Engine; CE500, CE560XL, CE680, CE525S, LRJET, HS125, & BE300 Type Ratings
Commercial - Airplane: Single Engine Land & Sea; Helicopter
Instrument & Instrument Instructor - Airplane and Helicopter
Flight Instructor - Airplane: Single Engine & Multi Engine; Helicopter
Designated Pilot Examiner - R-22, R-44 & R-66; Private, Commercial, Instrument, & CFI/CFII
Total Time – 19,000+ Airplane – 11,500+ Helicopter – 7500+
Instructor – 6000+ Civilian – 16,400+ Military – 2600+

AVIATION & TECHNICAL EXPERIENCE

2005 to Present - Owner, President, Director of Operations, Chief Pilot, & Check Airman for Hampton Roads Charter Service, Inc. & Hampton Roads Helicopters, Inc.; Chesapeake, VA. Owner, DO, Chief Pilot, & Check Airman for Part 135 helicopter charter and aircraft management company, lead sales and customer service representative for highly successful Robinson Helicopter Dealership. Founder, owner, and DO for a helicopter services, training, and maintenance company and Robinson Helicopter Service Center. Responsible for management and financial aspects of day to day operations of two diversified aviation companies.

2004 to Present - Vice-President, Hynes and Associates, Inc. Research, safety auditing, and litigation support in aviation and business matters. Accident investigation, risk management, and consultations on legal issues.

1998 to Present - Owner and President, DASH Aviation, Inc. Formed, incorporated, and run DASH Aviation, Inc. Buying, selling, and managing aircraft, performing piloting and instructing duties, aviation industry consulting, and managing the financial assets of the company.

2000 to 2005 - USAF Major/FAA, Aerospace System Inspection Pilot (ASIP) & Check Airman, Oklahoma City, OK. FAR Part 135 PIC, Instructor, and Check Airman in the HS125-800. Flew domestic and international flight inspection missions ensuring the safety of navaids and instrument procedures. Conducted training and checking of flight crewmembers. One of only five FAA ASIP's qualified and certified to conduct Helicopter Special IAP certifications and inspections.

1997 to 2000 - USAF Captain, C-5 Aircraft Commander & Current Operations Mobility Assets Coordinator, Dover AFB, DE. Commanded worldwide airlift missions and managed C-5 assets to meet global operations. Certified for CAT II instrument procedures and aerial refueling qualified.

1994 to 1997 - USAF Lieutenant, C-21 (Lear 35) Instructor Pilot, Aircraft Commander, & Wing Safety Officer, Langley AFB, VA. Transported high-level military and civilian dignitaries throughout North, Central, and South America, Caribbean, and Southwest Asia. Also investigated and reported flight mishaps, identified and mitigated safety hazards, and trained safety personnel.

1980 to 1988 - Various duties and responsibilities, Brantly-Hynes Aviation, Inc, Frederick, OK. Positions progressed from custodial duties, parts stocking and inventory, to flight test pilot. Gained valuable experience in all facets of manufacturing, sales, maintenance, and flight operations of a helicopter manufacturing and flight training company.

Helicopter and Airplane Private Pilot license in 1988, Commercial in 1994, Flight Instructor in 1996, ATP in 1997, DPE in 2010. Flown 30 different types of airplanes and 20 different types of helicopters in 50 countries around the globe. Actively fly and instruct in airplanes and helicopters. No violations or accidents in 18,000 hours and 35 years of aviation experience.

EDUCATION

CAE, Bell, FltSafety, SIMCOM, EFT, SkyBlue, Howell, King Air Academy, LOFT (1994-2026)
Robinson Helicopter Company Safety Course (R-22 1997, R-44 2005, & R-66 2014)
Robinson Helicopter Company Instructor Pilot Standardization Course (2024)
USAF Advanced Instrument School (2003)
Flight Safety Officer Course, Southern California Safety Institute (1996)
US Air Force Academy, Bachelor of Science - Human Factors Engineering (1988-1992)

ACHIEVEMENTS

Citation Jet Pilots Association Gold Standard Safety Award (2020)
Nominee for Helicopter Association International Instructor of the Year (2009)
Distinguished Graduate from C-5 and C-21 (Lear 35) Training Courses.
Highly decorated for Air Force service including serving in Iraq & Afghanistan.