

THOMAS R. DORL
719-433-5714 •tom@hrheli.com• Yorktown, VA

PILOT QUALIFICATIONS

ATP - Multi-Engine, CE500 PIC & CE560XL SIC Type Ratings
Commercial - Airplane: Single Engine Land; Helicopter, S-70 Helicopter Type Rating
Instrument & Instrument Instructor - Airplane and Helicopter
Flight Instructor - Airplane: Single Engine; Helicopter

Total Time – 4,600+	Airplane – 1,700+	Helicopter – 3,000+
Instructor – 1,400+	Civilian – 1,400+	Military – 3,000+

AVIATION & TECHNICAL EXPERIENCE

2022 to Present - Director of Safety & Training and Airplane Pilot, Hampton Roads Charter Service and Hampton Roads Helicopters, Inc., Chesapeake, VA.

2018 to 2022 - Vice-President Operational Risk Officer, Wells Fargo Bank. Provided operational risk assessment and mitigation consultation for financial services. Yorktown, VA.

2018 to 2022 - Director of Military Programs, CloudAhoy, Inc, and Flight Instructor & Check Airman at Rick Aviation. Developed tablet and PC based advanced flight debriefing capabilities for USAF and USN pilot training. Check Airman and CFI for tidewater Virginia's largest Part 141 flight school. Yorktown, VA

2014 to 2018 - USAF Colonel, Rescue Group Commander and Division Chief for all USAF Personnel Recovery/Combat Rescue Operations. Moody AFB, GA, and Langley AFB, VA. As Group Commander, led 400+ personnel operating 12 HH-60Gs and 9 HC-130s for global combat rescue operations. As Division Chief, guided $1.7B rescue portfolio ensuring all requirements, equipment and aircraft upgrades were purchased, operationally tested and installed on over 155 helicopters and fixed wing aircraft.

2011 to 2014 - USAF Lt Colonel, USAF Academy Cadet Group Commander and T-53/SR-20 Instructor Pilot. USAF Academy, CO. Led 1000+ cadets and 20 permanent party who provided leadership/military training for future USAF officers. CFI for USAFA powered flight program.

2007 to 2011 - USAF Lt Colonel, Director of Operations and Squadron Commander, Nellis AFB, NV. Led 130+ personnel, 12 HH-60Gs provided global search and rescue combat operations in Iraq, Afghanistan and other nations.

2004 to 2007 - USAF Major, Homeland Defense Planner, Legislative Liaison for U.S. Northern Command and NORAD, Peterson AFB, CO. Planning team member developed North American Homeland Defense plans and developed and built enduring congressional relationships.

1998 to 2004 - USAF Captain, HH-60G Weapons School (Top Gun) Instructor pilot, Commander's Action Group Deputy Director Nellis AFB, NV. Developed and provided ground and flight instruction for graduate level flying program. Commanded and led multiple worldwide combat rescue missions meeting global SECDEF demand.

1994 to 1998 - USAF Lieutenant, HH-60G Instructor Pilot, Aircraft Commander, Moody AFB, GA. Provided global and rapid rescue mission flights and support across United States and multiple middle eastern nations.

EDUCATION

HRCS, King Air Academy, and FlightSafety training courses (2022-2023)
USAF Crew Resource and Operational Risk Management Courses (1992-2016)
USAF Safety Board President's Course (2008)
National Defense University, Masters in Strategy and Campaign Planning, Norfolk VA (2005)
University of Phoenix, Phoenix, AZ. Master's in Business Administration (1995-2000)
USAF Weapons School, Nellis AFB, NV (1998)
USAF Fixed & Rotary Wing Pilot Training (1994)
Kent State University, Kent OH, Bachelor of Science - Aerospace Technology (1987-1991)

ACHIEVEMENTS

FAA Gold Seal CFI (2022)
Top USAF Weapons School Instructor (2002)
Distinguished Graduate from USAF Weapons School HH-60G (1998)
Highly decorated for Air Force service including serving in Iraq & Afghanistan.